WE WANT TO SAY YES!

It's no secret, for the past few years things have been financially tough. Now, we think that we see an economically stronger 1976 coming.

And, to show our faith in our country, we're going to unbutton a little and try to say yes to just about any reasonable loan request that's backed up with good credit.

So, if you've been hesitating about that new car, or that game room, or even that prize heifer, why not drop in and buttonhole one of Fidelity's loan officers. Tell him what you want your money for, and give him your credit information, and wait for him to pin a Yes button on you.
